Subject: Pre-Conference Prep Meeting

Dear #SpeechMatters Panelists,

Thank you for your participation in our upcoming conference. We are excited and honored to have such an esteemed panel!

Michelle asked me find a time for you to get together for a prep meeting in advance of the conference.

Please enter you availability in this panel prep call doodle. After the best time has been identified, you will receive a meeting invitation with a Zoom link.

Thanks, and I look forward to your input.

Kind regards,
Brenda

I am really excited about your upcoming panel. David, Jonathan and I re-worked the questions so they reflect our conversation. You will find them by scrolling to the bottom of this document. Please review and add any changes.

Please also add links to resources section of the google document.

And – if comfortable, please share a cell phone number where you can be reached in case a backup means of communication is needed during the conference.

You will receive the individual link for your session later today. Please remember that another session will be ongoing when you enter the “zoom room” so please be muted and have your video turned off when you enter.

You are welcome to log in to Day 2 of the conference. BUT, in order to do that, you will need to register as an attendee.

Do not hesitate to let us know if you have any questions.

Best regards,
Michelle

I want to reiterate my thanks for your willingness to participate today. Feedback about the panel is so positive (no surprise), and I am grateful.

Please feel free to reply with resources you would like included in the follow up email and on the Center webpage that will house your panel's video (Ebonee—I know that you already put yours in the google doc).

I hope we all have an occasion to collaborate again.
