Michael:

Let's plan on meeting at DARPA (675 North Randolph Street, Arlington, VA 22203-2114). Visitor instructions can be found at <http://www.darpa.mil/policy/visitor-information>. You can use me as your POC on the day of the meeting. Clearance passing information is below (and in the Visitor Information link):

For collateral-level visits, please fax your clearance/visit request to DARPA at (703) 528-3655 or send it via encrypted email to: WVC@DARPA.mil. Via JPAS, the requesting FSO may send a visit request using the SMO Code: DDAAUS4.

For SCI-level visits, please fax your clearance/visit request to the SSO at 703-812-1995 (secure) or 703-528-3655 (unclassified). You may also send your SCI visit requests as follows:

Via JWICS, the requesting SSO may send a message with the visit information to SSO DARPA.

Via JPAS, the requesting SSO may send a visit request using the SMO Code DDAAUS2.

(b)(6)

(b)(6) had to submit in a new VAR for you, your last one had expired. It is now in the system. Hopefully since you have (b)(6) they can skip the fingerprinting etc. just submit your SCI request and then you badge requests. I am verifying that now.

Fysa, [redacted] was promoted and is now the office chief (replaced [redacted]). On Friday he asked for justifications for everyone we have or are getting badges for. He is new to the position (he has been here for a couple years). He wanted to get a handle on it. The justifications included NetDef/CHASE folks as well. I didn't get any push back on our list.

I will be taking leave July 3 -8. If there are any issues, please let me know.

I put the next EA meeting on your calendar to make you aware. There is no need for you to attend. This meeting will finalize the plan for the initial system install on the yellow network. (b)(6) runs the network and he says he can make anything work but they prefer the VM solution because it fits what they are building. We will discuss both hardware and VM options at this meeting.

Gentlemen,

This is the NRO meeting we have been working. [REDACTED] provided an initial brief to their NCIJTF liaison and this is a follow up brief at their location. I am not sure where this will go.

I am also working on bringing [REDACTED] to the NCIJTF earlier that day for a follow up deep dive on TA1. They are interesting in using that capability here.

Hi [REDACTED]

My hard conflicts (i.e., days I cannot travel) for the next few weeks are as follows:

Mon 2/13

Tue 2/14
Thu 2/16
Fri 2/17
Mon 2/27
Thu 3/2
Thu 3/9

So basically, next week is really bad, but after that is mostly fine.

It was good seeing you yesterday. I wanted to find some time to come over and talk about the work we've been doing in the DARPA Enhanced Attribution program, and in particular the various collaborations with several field offices, NCIJTF, and NDCA.

I'm TDY next week; let me know if you have availability after that.

understood. Let me know when you know.

I provided a quick response on SIPR — let me check what we have readily available, and what we can get ready “soon”. Counter-question to you in that message.

I’ll be able to check SIPR again on Monday (briefly), then I’m TDY for two weeks with only low-side email.

Best,

pleased to meet you. We’ll see what we can do to help :) I’ll be in SF for (part of?) the RSA conference in mid-April...right now, I’m planning to fly in on the 17th; I’m participating in a conference panel on the afternoon of the 18th; and then leave either on the 19th or the 20th. Let me know if you’d like me to set aside some time to come over and chat about the program (or other matters).

we're at 675 N Randolph Street, Arlington, VA 22203. There's a mall directly across the street, with a parking entrance around the corner on Glebe Street (it's something like $1 for 3 hours).

I'll see you on Monday at 2:15pm. There is security coming in, so let me know if you'll be carrying (we can handle it, but just need a heads up). Also, if you need to pass clearances,

[redacted] can send instructions; we don't do IC badges, only Visa/Mastercard and American Express :)

Once you clear security and get a badge, they'll call me. It usually takes 5 minutes (or less, if there's no line).

Cheers,

we're at 675 N Randolph Street, Arlington, VA 22203. There's a mall directly across the street, with a parking entrance around the corner on Glebe Street (it's something like $1 for 3 hours).

I'll see you on Monday at 2:15pm. There is security coming in, so let me know if you'll be carrying (we can handle it, but just need a heads up). Also, if you need to pass clearances, (b)(6) [redacted] can send instructions; we don't do IC badges, only Visa/Mastercard and American Express :)

Once you clear security and get a badge, they'll call me. It usually takes 5 minutes (or less, if there's no line).

Cheers,

(b)(6)

Yes -

We will have different team members brief into each program - (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) will have lead for ODX -- we are doing verbal briefs as we are focused more on problem sets and areas for integration with each shop. We can break out into teams for deep dives as necessary.

We are bringing Engineers et al - this is to avoid death by powerpoint and foster real time collaboration

The agenda had 4 programs listed. Is someone else talking about those? I haven't received any other material.

No way

I am going to get up and get through them in 10-12 minutes, questions and then get out of the way for the real work to start.

My part is to provide orientation to our operation through an overview -- I will also mention a few of the items that others are not present to present.

I received the slides on the high side, and we'll have them available.

But, the deck only had 14 slides (plus 4 hidden) --- are you really planning to go for 90 minutes with 14 slides? (Just checking.)

Jennifer Roberts will not be able to do the 18th, so Phil Sage would need to fill in. I'm not sure if Frank can make it either. Still working that. My push was to just have EA on the 18th and push the other briefs to a later date. If that works, we can fit [redacted] (b)(6) and his people in the meeting. The people I am working with to setup the meeting have been out for the holiday, I will lock this down on the 5th.

Ha!

It is getting quite crazy; it is clear to me that we have come across a huge unmet need. The problem is that helping out has started interfering with the actual research side of things...for the past couple of months, I've been trying to find a proper operational partner that can pick up some of the burden (and all the glory!)

Anyway...there's a couple of things we've discovered that you may want to hear about at some point. The world is crazier than I thought.

Our office director has signed off. There are a couple of minor changes in the text (mostly clarifying that DARPA is not doing any "operations"). So, by the end of the week at the latest.

I think (b)(6) may have sent slides? I can do it with or without slides — and since it's late afternoon on a Friday, I would totally understand if you'd like to just have a conversation :)

Either way, here's a set of unclass slides (Distribution C — USG only) — we can use them or not, deciding on the spot.

See you in a couple of hours.

Let's do 930am on August 22 - assuming the whole thing takes less than 2 hours. Can you send a calendar invite with the details?

Thanks,

Please let me know when you plan on being here and I will setup you in-processing with security. You get to watch a video, sign some paperwork and get your RSA token or CAC for login access. You will also need to go to the Mission Ridge location to get your badge activated/pin. It is located at 15030 Conference Center Dr, Chantilly, VA 20151--about 5 minutes from NCIJTF. Enter the building through the front doors and tell them you are there to get your badge activated/pin. They will take care of you. Parking can be a pain but they do have some visitors spots up front. You still have access to our areas with your badge without going to Mission Ridge but you will just need to get badged into all the doors.

I don't think it's a different case. I'll be at Ft Meade on October 16; let's talk after that — I'm hoping to dig a little deeper on this while I'm there. Maybe Oct 18?

Thanks

For collateral-level visits, please fax your clearance/visit request to DARPA at (703) 528-3655 or send it via email to: VCC@DARPA.mil. Via JPAS, the requesting FSO may send a visit request using the SMO Code: DDAAUS4.

For SCI-level visits, please fax your clearance/visit request to the SSO at 703-812-1995 (secure) or 703-528-3655 (unclassified). You may also send your SCI visit requests as follows:

Via JWICS, the requesting SSO may send a message with the visit information to SSO DARPA.
Via JPAS, the requesting SSO may send a visit request using the SMO Code DDAAUS2.

No worries. I can do a call on Tuesday, but it'll have to be at the unclass level (and thus probably not as useful) as I don't have easy access to an NSTS line here. Or we can do later in the week?

I have similar constraints wrt kids and school next week :)

Thanks for the telecon. The next PI meeting will be at DARPA (in DC) on November 28 (full-day event). There will be a 3-hour meeting at Georgia Tech on October 5, specific to that project alone.

Thank you again for taking the time on Tuesday to participate in the call. We really appreciated the discussion and the opportunity hear more about your efforts and also plan to incorporate the feedback you offered in support of the NDCA. We're interested in continuing to collaborate and if appropriate, would like to participate in the upcoming DARPA meetings you discussed which relate to your project. In the interim, please let us know if you have thoughts or ideas associated with the NDCA and also advise if there are any areas where we can assist in your efforts.

We look forward to working with you in the future.

Best of luck with the move!

If the briefs will be classified or you would just enjoy the flexibility of speaking up to classified topics, then (b)(6) & (b)(6) would need to pass clearances to us. If I can have (b)(6) & (b)(6)'s SIPRNET account (or if you can contact me on SIPRNET, with my last name it is not hard) I can send you the information on how to pass clearances to us. Alternatively, I believe (b)(6) has this information as well. Just let me know how to proceed on this matter.

I got them. If you like I can put them in my DARPA office. You have access, your temp badge will get you into it if I'm not there. Let me know if you want me to do something else with them.

I think I left my jacket in your car or at NCIJTF (else it is lost at IAD). Normally I wouldn't care but I am fairly certain my DARPA badge is in the hidden pocket. Could you check when you get a chance?

Don,
I hope all is well.

Since you will be driving most of the meeting, could you provide a tentative agenda? We'll plan on doing a half-hour overview of programs in the office (if you want that), and the rest of the time if yours.

Also, please make sure you send us names of attendees from your side --- DARPA doesn't take IC badges.

Best,

I spent some time with some of our EA performers to discuss the ideas we spoke about last week regarding paths forward for deploying the EA stack.

They, understandably so, have questions about how your databases are configured, their schemas, etc. (b)(6) suggested I reach out to you to set up a briefing for them to include what the database contains, how it is queried, and other such technical and logistical questions. Can we set something up for the near future? Most everyone has clearances though two of the people (b)(6) have recently formed their own company so only their TS is currently active.

I have done an initial review of the info you sent on the high side. What is the status of this info as far as being able to share it within my organization at pursue action of warranted? Not sure why you didn't get my last e-mail, but I will try again to send you some additional detail on the high side.

Thanks for stopping by today, it's always a pleasure to talk to you.

Here's the DARPA contact we mentioned:

(b)(6) email: (b)(6)@darpa.mil

Have a good weekend.

Indeed so — our last meeting was well over a year ago. Lots of progress since then. It will be interesting.

(b)(6) please coordinate with (b)(6) on passing clearances.

I thought your name was familiar -- believe I was in your last briefing. Look forward to reconnecting.

Not surprising, it's been raining cats and dogs most of the day here. I hope you make it back without too much (additional) hassle.

Next Friday: I can easily do 3:30pm (or later); let me know if you need to do earlier, and I can shuffle things around.

Is (b)(6) still the right person to pass clearances through? (b)(6) (cc'ed) will be accompanying me.

Hi, (b)(6) Thanks for reaching out. Copying two of my colleagues that I'd like to attend. Because of flight delays, I think a number of things are rolling from tomorrow to Monday. Adam, Lucky for both of us, I'm based in DC (technically, Arlington). It's pretty easy for me to come over to DOJ, or host you at DARPA if you'd like to get out of the office instead. There's a lot we should talk about, including how we're gearing up to work with the FBI and how you can potentially help move things along. I'd rather have this discussion in person, if the schedules align.

The next 3 weeks involve a lot of travel for me, but this coming Monday morning is free (I need to be back at DARPA for a 1pm meeting). The afternoon of April 14 (a week from tomorrow) also works. Let me know if either of these works.

Please allow me to introduce Mr Adam Hickey, Deputy Assistant Attorney General (DAAG) in the National Security Division (NSD) of the Justice Dept (DOJ). Adam gave a keynote at the Atlanta Cyber Summit this morning, and he and I had a chance to meet yesterday afternoon on his way into town.

<http://cybersummitusa.com/2017-atlanta/agenda/>

We met in the SCIF, but 90% of the discussion was unclassified. It was a good dialogue and I believe it makes sense for the two of you to connect. Based on the program overview I shared with him (e.g. presenter's day brief) he is interested to learn more.

At his talk this morning, Adam highlighted how NSD is committed to using criminal investigations to raise the costs for malicious cyber activity, even when sponsored by a foreign government. He is very familiar with recent and historic indictments and how DOJ and law enforcement have adapted to help companies and critical infrastructure better defend themselves against cyber threats.

Adam -- thanks again for your time yesterday. [redacted]
[redacted] He can provide additional context and guidance on partnerships across USG as well as transition plans for this research.

Wayne, thanks for the intro as well.

Valerie, it is a pleasure to meet you as well. As Wayne said, we've been working with a number of field offices, primarily on the cyber side — although we have occasionally lent a hand in other matters too, as appropriate (see attached, which was done in coordination with the Pittsburgh FBI office — I believe (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) is the POC there).

Unfortunately, November 20 won't work for me (I'll be on PTO that whole week). The week after Thanksgiving offers a few opportunities:

- November 26 (Monday): 3pm or later
- November 27: any time except 11:30-12:30
- November 30: any time after 10:30am

Let me know what works for you. I can come over to FBI HQ with little hassle (other than the driving into DC part :))
